

COLLEGIATE CLUB MANUAL

WELCOME

Collegiate Sertoma Clubs are organized so young men and women may become active in providing service to their universities, colleges and communities. These clubs first became part of the Sertoma family in July 1971.

The need for a strong college program within the Sertoma family is evident in many aspects of life. Our local communities need youth to be active in serving mankind. While members of Collegiate Sertoma Clubs serve others, they learn about themselves.

Sertoma needs to invest in our nation's greatest resource - our YOUTH - and help young people become better citizens of tomorrow. In addition, Collegiate Sertomans are encouraged to become members of Sertoma Clubs upon graduation or leaving school.

The Collegiate Sertoma Club membership is limited to college age through graduation or 25 years of age (whichever comes first). Collegiate Sertoma Clubs promote the growth of individuals, leadership, mutual tolerance and understanding among all people. Collegiate members learn the joy and satisfaction of being involved in service projects that improve life in their schools and communities.

The clubs are organized on college and university campuses or in the community. Membership is open to young men and women with no restrictions to race, color, disability, creed, gender, national origin, religion, sexual orientation or any other protected class.

- Have an active adult member of the Sponsoring Sertoma Club serve as Sponsor Club Liaison
- Adopt the standard Constitution and Bylaws
- Have a minimum of 15 Charter Members

MISSION ACTIVITIES

The purpose of every Collegiate Club is to provide young people the opportunity and experience service. Through the support of their Collegiate Club Advisor and Sponsor Club Liaison, members learn how to identify and address community needs, be that within their school, city, state or nation. In addition to working on a local level, Collegiate Clubs have the opportunity to support the national mission activities of Sertoma. Additional information on these programs is found in Appendix A of this Manual.

FEES

In order to be a Collegiate Club, a Sertoma Club must sponsor you. That Sertoma Club is responsible for the $200 annual renewal fee to Sertoma headquarters. This is paid each July, beginning with the first July following the charter year. Club members and the Collegiate Club Advisor(s) determine the cost of dues if needed for the club. If dues are to be collected by the club, appropriate financial management must be arranged and approved by the Collegiate Club Advisor. Each club may charge its members an admission fee that is not to exceed $5.

REPORTS

The following forms (see Appendix D) must be submitted by the Sponsor Club Liaison or the Collegiate Club Advisor to Sertoma headquarters when the new club officially charters:

- Form 1-D: Collegiate Organization Meeting Report
- Form 1-A: Membership Report Roster
- Form 1-F: Official Record
- Also include, amended Club Constitution and Bylaws (see Appendix C)

SERTOMA: YOUR SPONSORING ORGANIZATION

Sertoma is a service club organization with a passion to create a world where everyone who chooses, can hear us. That passion compels us to raise awareness of our cause, educate those willing to understand, and support those who need our support. The organization, founded April 11, 1912, is headquartered in Kansas City, Missouri.

As the parent organization, Sertoma helps clubs increase the effectiveness of their community service activities. Annually, Sertoma Clubs sponsor thousands of funding projects, raising more than $20 million to support Sertoma sponsorship projects.

Sertoma headquarters is open Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., CST. A professional full-time staff is dedicated to supporting organization's programs and services.

ADULT VOLUNTEERS SUPPORTING COLLEGIATE CLUBS

SPONSOR CLUB LIAISON

The Sponsor Club Liaison is the person(s) who maintain(s) close contact with the Collegiate Sertoma Club to ensure that members are gaining from their experience and that the sponsoring club's goals for the Collegiate Club are being met. The Liaison should counsel and assist whenever Collegiate Sertoma Club members have questions, but should allow members to direct all club activities.

The Liaison is a member of the sponsoring club and works in conjunction with the Collegiate Club Advisor. The Liaison is the link between the sponsoring club and the Collegiate Club. The Liaison should track Collegiate Sertomans upon graduation or leaving school to assist them in joining Sertoma Clubs in their new communities. The Liaison may work closely with the Collegiate Club Advisor and the alumni office of the school to facilitate this.

COLLEGIATE CLUB ADVISOR

In addition to the Sponsor Club Liaison, a Collegiate Club Advisor, who is a member of the faculty or staff of the college or university, shall be selected. The Collegiate Club Advisor will usually have to be approved by the school administration.

A close working relationship between the Collegiate Club Advisor and the Sponsor Club Liaison needs to be established. A Sertoma Club that is sponsoring a Collegiate Sertoma Club may want to invite the Collegiate Club Advisor to become a member of the Sertoma Club. In some instances, the Sertoma Club has paid Sertoma and club fees for the Collegiate Club Advisor.

CLUB OFFICERS

Each Collegiate Club officer brings a variety of experiences and talents to the office and a solid commitment to making great things happen within the program. Teamwork is the key to a successful year. Every member of the leadership team should have individual assignments. When someone experiences difficulties, others should offer encouragement and assistance.

As you prepare for your leadership experience, let's review the basic purposes of a Collegiate Club:

- To promote acquaintances, friendship and fellowship as an opportunity for service;
- To encourage and foster the idea of service;
- To provide opportunities for members to serve the less fortunate and the general community;
- To encourage active citizenship; and
- To create acceptance and understanding among all.

At your first club meeting of the year, and occasionally after that, take a few minutes to review your purpose with members of your Collegiate Club. These purposes serve as a way to measure progress and to help determine if your club is on the right course.

PRESIDENT

The president leads and supports the team of officers. To prepare, the president should:

- Develop and implement a plan of action, with support of the Collegiate Advisor and club members;
- Have a written agenda for each club meeting;
- Become familiar with parliamentary procedure;
- Delegate responsibilities to officers, directors and committee chairs to ensure club success;
- Select capable members to be committee chairs; and
- Work closely with the secretary and Collegiate Advisor to ensure reports are submitted on time.

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

As leader of the organization, the president must be prepared to handle a variety of situations. It begins with you. Your character will greatly determine your success. Good leaders are tactful, friendly, objective and must always have integrity.

Attitude is the most important factor in leadership. You can predetermine your success by expecting positive results throughout the year. Take the initiative; make things happen.

Communication is as important as attitude. No matter how much one talks, successful communication occurs only when someone listens. You must be an active listener to truly hear what others are saying.

Leadership techniques must be acquired and developed. They do not come with the office. You should develop an understanding of and constantly improve your ability to:

- Delegate responsibilities;
- Preside at meetings; and
- Motivate members toward achievements.

Learn the rules and procedures required for the club to operate efficiently and effectively. Review carefully your Club Constitution and Bylaws. Learn parliamentary procedure in order to become familiar with the basics of how to conduct a meeting.

Keep notes on ideas and things to do. A good checklist will be beneficial to you as a leader. Establish a schedule for completion of each item on your agenda.

Establish specific goals, such as service, fellowship, and self-improvement for members. Keep these objectives in mind and put your goals in writing. Also, make sure to review your club's sponsorship agenda. Provide a good variety of activities for all of your members.

Know the team. Get to know your members, especially those who don't come to meetings. Make sure the active members are involved in your club. Members who don't come to the meetings may be waiting for your invitation to return.

Remember that help is available. Your Sertoma leaders and staff at Sertoma headquarters are eager to serve your club.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Club Organization

Your leadership team is crucial to the success of your club. Get to know your club officers and members of the board of directors. The club president must fully understand how the leadership team and club operate. Become familiar with each leader's responsibilities and personality.

Constitution and Bylaws

The Club Constitutions and Bylaws are designed to provide a foundation for your club. Review them carefully.

Club Meetings

Meetings should open and close on time. The presiding officer should follow a well-prepared timed agenda. The secretary usually prepares or helps the president prepare the agenda (see Sample Club Meeting Agenda). An interesting meeting often depends upon the morale, tone, and quality of programs and presiding ability of the president.

Do everything possible to maintain the interest of members and encourage fellowship. As president, meet and greet guests before the meeting starts. Your personal welcome will add a nice touch. Do not forget the importance of remembering a person's name. Be sure you introduce any guests. Have them stand for recognition. Following a guest's visit, you should follow up with a "thanks for coming" message, along with a copy of the club newsletter (if one is printed) in which that person's name appears.

The Community

Be sure the community knows that your club can be depended upon to provide valuable services. Take time to offer your club's cooperation to other schools and local charitable organizations. Whatever commitments you make, be ready to follow up. Your club must be known as an organization that keeps its word.

Organizing Committees

The sample Collegiate Club committee structure in this manual was designed to help you. Study it carefully.

Identify the standing and special committees your club needs. What would each committee need during the year in order to meet the goals of the club? Put your conclusions in writing. Which member of your club would be the best person to chair each committee or project? Be ready to appoint committee chairs before the year begins. Make sure these individuals are willing to handle the assignment.

Consider the make-up of your members and try to get everyone involved. Do not overlook or overwork anyone.

Board/Officers Meetings

The president is responsible for holding meetings at times specified in the Club Bylaws. Practically all business and general operations of the club should be handled at board/officers meetings, not at club meetings.

The president should develop the meeting agenda. Generally, the board/officers meeting will be held on a day and at a time other than a regular club meeting (see Sample Board/Officers Meeting Agenda).

VICE PRESIDENT

Collegiate Clubs may decide to have more than one vice president, but usually no more than three. Each one assists the president in the administration of club affairs.

Traditionally, the vice presidents serve as chair of one of the club's three major committees: Membership, Programs and Sponsorships. However, one of the vice presidents may serve as chair of a fundraising committee or a publicity committee.

VICE PRESIDENT MEMBERSHIP

Works with the president in developing and implementing an effective membership development plan, including:

- Membership retention
- Orientation for new members
- New member induction
- Processing of membership nominations

VICE PRESIDENT SPONSORSHIPS

- Ensures the club has a healthy program of sponsorships or service projects
- Encourages the leadership team to make sure sponsorships are planned and implemented throughout the school year
- Oversees the sponsorship committees in collaboration with other leaders

VICE PRESIDENT PROGRAMS

- Emphasizes importance of having occasional “outside” guests at a regular club meeting
- Greets guest speakers and ensures they are comfortable
- Helps the president involve every member, particularly new members, in club activities
- Plans social activities

SECRETARY

- Keeps minutes of the club and board/officer meetings
- Assists in planning the agenda
- Maintains an accurate roster of the club membership
- Updates all club records, including membership and attendance records, meeting minutes and committee reports
- The Sponsoring Club Liaison or the Collegiate Club Advisor is to report all membership changes to Sertoma headquarters on the Annual Report by October 10. Make sure that the necessary information is provided to the Liaison and Advisor.
- Maintains correspondence for the club with other Collegiate Clubs, Sertoma leadership and Sertoma headquarters
- Receives, answers and files all club correspondence and requests
- Reads all correspondence from Sertoma headquarters and Sertoma leaders at board/officer meetings
- Becomes familiar with past practices, policies of the club and the Constitution and Bylaws.
- Works closely with the newsletter editor, ensuring its regular publication. In some cases, the secretary serves as editor.

TREASURER

The treasurer, if required, is responsible for all club funds. The secretary may hold this position. The treasurer should submit monthly financial reports to the club members and the Collegiate Club Advisor. Appropriations from the treasury should be made only upon approval of the board of directors/club officers and the Collegiate Club Advisor.

The treasurer must keep complete and accurate financial records for the club. All club funds must be placed in a depository set up by the sponsoring Sertoma Club.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS

The sergeant-at-arms is responsible for ensuring that all club property is properly placed for each meeting and returned after the meeting. The sergeant-at-arms is also the official greeter for the club and is charged with welcoming all visitors.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS/OFFICERS

Some Collegiate Clubs have a board of directors, mirroring the Sertoma Club structure. The Collegiate Club board of directors manages the functions of the Collegiate Club. It is comprised of the officers and directors. The board of directors/officers has a variety of specific responsibilities including the following:

- Develop and maintain club goals;
- Develop, approve and monitor the club budget;
- Consider the eligibility of proposed members;
- Formulate club policies;
- Consider long-term and short-term plans for the club; and
- Receive, evaluate and act upon various committee reports.

Committee chairs, if not members of the board of directors, may be invited to attend meetings of the board.

MEMBERSHIP FEES AND DUES

The dues and fees structure and related responsibilities are important to every club and to every member. The treasurer should be familiar with these matters, as defined in the Club Bylaws.

OPERATING AND SPONSORSHIP MONEY

Clubs must clearly account for the use of all funds, specifically those acquired from fundraising projects. All funds raised to support a sponsorship must go toward that sponsorship, less any direct expense of the fundraising project. The staff at Sertoma's headquarters can assist the Collegiate Club Liaison and Advisor if they need assistance or have questions concerning the handling of operational (fees or dues) and sponsorship monies.

COMMITTEES

SPONSORSHIP

The Sponsorships Committee should consider the following fundamentals of Collegiate Club sponsorships:

- The active member performs this service.
- A member's contribution or service varies in proportion to his or her interests.
- The project must be interesting.
- The project must not be an overwhelming task, either financially or in service hours required.

The most successful Collegiate Club sponsorships are those that have been carefully nurtured and maintained until they have become identified with the club. Sponsorships may assist in community development or provide service to individuals or groups. After identifying a sponsorship, the committee must develop a plan for meeting that need and decide how to finance the project.

PUBLICITY

When selecting a sponsorship, a club's first concern should be the opportunity to serve. Publicity however, may help advance the project while recognizing the club and is worth consideration. Publicize sponsorships to club members through the club newsletter and to the entire community through newspaper, radio, social media and television if possible. Tell Sertomans and Collegiates everywhere about your success stories by sending complete information and photographs to Sertoma headquarters for exposure in a Sertoma publication.

HOW TO SELECT A SPONSORSHIP

To select a sponsorship program for your club, review any sponsorship history and the program's present status. What projects are currently being sponsored and what are the interests of club members?

The Sponsorships Committee must have an enthusiastic chair to promote the research and implementation behind outstanding service projects. In a new club, or in a club without a satisfactory sponsorship, pursue a short-term project first. After short-term sponsorships are mastered, the committee may decide the club is ready for a long-term challenge.

A club will gain a greater sense of accomplishment and pride if it provides a service not available from any other organization in the community. Search your community for a real need your Club can fill.

FACTORS TO CONSIDER

When considering possible sponsorships, the committee should evaluate several factors:

- The interests of club members. Do they want to expend money, service hours, or both? Do members want to develop an entirely new project? (A questionnaire may help to determine these projects.)
- The amount of money available for immediate use and over a long term
- The interest in investing service hours over a short or long period and in what ways
- The community's needs. Survey your city to determine the needs the Collegiate Club can fill - Consult city officials, school officials and nurses, county welfare and medical officials, and your own sponsoring Sertoma Club members.

SHORT-TERM PROJECTS

Short-term projects may be used for brief activity and interest on one or more occasions.

- Send a child to summer camp.
- Furnish a wheelchair for a disabled child or supplies to an orphanage.
- Give to an organized charity, such as the March of Dimes, Red Cross, etc.
- Leadership hours
- Provide tutoring services for school.

LONG-TERM PROJECTS

Long-term projects are permanent sponsorships that are best started on a small scale and expanded. Long-range planning over a year is desirable.

- Service hours - Devote time regularly over a long-term period.
- Entertainment, recreation and visitation activities at a nursing home
- Leadership hours - Because of the time involved, a leader often cannot commit time to a project regularly. Therefore, some club members prefer to lean on a professional leader for continuity of program and then participate in an occasional leadership activity.
- Ask how many hours they can personally donate to the project.
- Ask how much money they think the club should spend on the project.
- Ask their opinions on previous years' programs.

See Appendix A: Sponsorships of Sertoma for more information.

MEMBERSHIP

The Membership Committee is responsible for strengthening the club through membership recruiting and conservation. One of the main objectives of a progressive Collegiate Club is to build and maintain a strong membership. Whenever possible, the club should continually recruit new members.

New members mean:

- New ideas
- More fellowship
- More members to participate in club activities
- More significant community contributions
- More effective community recognition

ATTENDANCE - SUBCOMMITTEE OR ACTIVITY OF MEMBERSHIP

Instructive and entertaining programs are important BUT an effective, lively Attendance Committee may also keep members attending meetings. Sixty percent is considered minimum, 70 percent is good; and 80 percent is desirable. When a member becomes delinquent in attendance, the Attendance Committee finds out WHY.

If a club member misses four consecutive meetings, the Committee Chairman and Vice President should make a personal call. Approach the member by asking, "What's wrong with our club? How can we improve it? We miss you and need your help." Members must realize they are important to the club and the club wants their assistance.

Suggestions:

- Recognize perfect attendance.
- Have attendance contests with competition among individuals or teams.
- Provide attendance prizes at each meeting, drawing for recipients among those present.

PROGRAMS AND SOCIAL

One of the most important elements of a regular club meeting is the presentation made by a speaker, often times an outside speaker. This is called "the program" and should not be confused with the service program called "sponsorships." This is an important role as this committee has the responsibility to put fun and excitement into the activities of their Collegiate Club. Be it a regular club meeting or an educational social outing, this work is critical to:

- Maintaining Interest: Much of the members' interest in the club is developed and maintained or weakened by the character of the meetings. Consistently good programs play a large part in ongoing interest.
- Improving Attendance: Because attendance reflects interest, the Program Committee may have much to do with improving a club's attendance record.
- Club Education: The program offers an opportunity to inform club members.
- Informing the Public: Reports of good meetings appearing in the school press and on social media is an excellent technique for educating fellow students about the value of your club
- Aiding Growth: Non-members may welcome invitations to membership if they attend as guests and decide to join the club.

ELEMENTS OF A GOOD PROGRAM

FRIENDLINESS: The manner in which announcements and introductions are made, the recognition of visitors, and other activities help make the program successful.

HUMOR: Tasteful skits and humorous references are valuable in almost any program, but they should not detract from the dignity of the club.

KEEPING TO SCHEDULE: An agenda is important to conducting a meeting efficiently. If your program includes a speaker, advise the individual how much time has been allotted for his or her presentation. ADJOURN ON TIME!

PROGRAM SOURCES

A careful inventory of the program material available in the community will be useful. These suggestions may help develop an inventory.

- Members of the Club: The atmosphere of fellowship in a club should allow every member to take part. Members might be asked to speak on personal goals. Accomplishments, hobbies or other outside interests.
- Other Citizens of the Community: Every community has qualified speakers who would welcome an opportunity to appear on a club's program to address their area of expertise.
- Institutions and Organizations: Possibilities include teachers, executives of libraries, orphanages, hospitals, etc. or representatives of national organizations that have a local office. Do not limit this to speakers coming to your meetings; consider tours and visits to museums or other places of interest and value to the members.
- Miscellaneous: Representatives of national organizations may often speak without expense to the club. Investigate this by corresponding with the organization's central office.

SOCIAL EVENTS

These offer a great opportunity to build and strengthen the club. These events are also a good way to reward the hard work that goes into any successful sponsorship or fundraising effort. Social activities do not have to be a freestanding event; anytime the club meets, consider how to build some "social time" for the members. Make sure social activities are appropriate and designed to involve all the members and guests.

RESPONSIBILITIES: The Social Committee puts fun and excitement into activities of their Collegiate Club. Collegiates work hard, but they play hard, too. It is important to provide social activities to interrupt the heavy work schedule of your club, so members and their families may become better acquainted.

INTER-CLUB COMMITTEE

RESPONSIBILITIES: This committee ensures the club becomes involved with any other Collegiate Clubs in the area.

COMMUNICATE: The first step is to establish communications with the Collegiate Clubs in your area – put them on your mailing list and see that they get your newsletters, making them aware of your activities. The committee can then arrange for friendly contests to be worked out between all of the clubs in your area. For instance, hold contests relating to service, development of membership, fundraising contests, athletic competitions and other activities.

NEW CLUBS: Do not overlook welcoming newly chartered clubs into the great family of Collegiate Clubs. Make them feel welcome. Invite members to attend one of your club meetings. Let them know you really care!

EXCHANGE IDEAS: Arrange joint meetings with the Collegiate Clubs in your area for a complete exchange of ideas on fundraising, sponsorships, membership growth and all other aspects of good club management.

SOCIAL AND FELLOWSHIP DEVELOPMENT: In cooperation with your social committee, arrange for parties, dances, attendance at major sporting events and other activities that can involve your Collegiate Club and others.

MAKE-UP ATTENDANCE: A member may make up an absence by attending one of the following meetings one week prior to or one month following the missed meeting:

- Another Collegiate Club meeting (attested by a certificate signed by that club's secretary);
- A club Board of Directors/officers meeting;
- A Sertoma Club meeting or board meeting; or
- A meeting of another organization that the member is attending as a representative of the Collegiate Club.

PROGRAMS: Many committees develop numerous new ways to socialize. These are some of the most popular:

- Dances
- Sporting Events
- Education Trips
- Dinners - Honorary, Ceremonial, etc.
- Picnics
- Holiday Parties
- Movie Parties
- Guest Speakers

FUNDRAISING

A great deal of service does not require fundraising. However, if you are going to raise funds to support your club's sponsorship, choosing the right one is important. This committee should work closely with the sponsorships committee to determine an appropriate activity.

TIPS TO REMEMBER

- Many good fundraisers take more than one year to become successful.
- Successful fundraisers need active participation from all members.
- Do not expect to earn hundreds the first year.
- Do not overcommit your resources. Member burnout could result from over commitment.

Your Collegiate Club may use one of the following topics or one of its own.

Marathons/Tournaments	Sales	Other
Chess/Backgammon	Balloon	All You Can Eat Pancakes
Basketball	Bake Sale	Recycling
Bike	Bulbs/Flowers	Bake Off
Frisbee	Calendars	Cake Walk
Trivial Pursuit Contest	Holiday Ornaments	Car Washes
Walk/Run	Cookbooks	Holiday Gift Wrap
Golf (Night Golf)	Coupon books	Concession Stands
Baseball/Softball	Flags	Face Painting
Volleyball	Garage Sale	Lawn Mowing
Tennis	Used Books	Photo Contest
Badminton	White Elephants	Pie Eating Contest

PUBLICITY

RESPONSIBILITIES

- See that an advance announcement or a follow-up report of each meeting appears in the school paper and on the club's social media channels.
- Send news releases and photographs of interest to the Sertoma Headquarters for Sertoma publications.
- Supervise the advance publicity on all major club sponsorship projects and social events.
- Publish the club newsletter.

THE CLUB NEWSLETTER

The club newsletter is the club's primary method for maintaining contact with all members. A Collegiate member uses this to keep up-to-date with club activities. The newsletter should educate, share interests and entertain its readers. Copies of each issue of the club newsletter should be sent to Sertoma Headquarters and your sponsoring Sertoma Club.

A CLUB NEWSLETTER SHOULD:

- Announce the program for the next meeting to create interest and improve attendance;
- Briefly outline important points of the preceding meeting for members who were unable to attend, and to refresh members who did attend;
- Announce Board/Officer Meetings and report on Board/Officer actions;
- Report committee appointments, activities and the date, time, and place of committee meetings;
- Stimulate active interest in club sponsorships;
- Promote social and athletic events;
- Recognize members who receive honors or achievements in the community; and
- Announce new members to promote a spirit of fellowship and goodwill.

Now you know what to put into your newsletter. The trick is to make sure your club members read it!

TIPS FOR A BETTER CLUB NEWSLETTER

- Separate items through the use of headlines, CAPITALIZATION and paragraphs (or a combination of these methods). Your newsletter will be more easily read and will have a neater appearance.
- Avoid filling your newsletter with jokes, which should be used sparingly as fillers, not as the main body of the newsletter.
- Use names! Everybody likes to see his or her name in print. List committees, sponsorship workers, and participants in the last meeting.
- Write as you would speak. Present the facts, noting highlights of interest to your readers.
- If you have the space and time, prepare a concise, well-planned editorial on some item of interest to your membership.
- Take pride in your newsletter, and your newsletter will make you proud.

MEETINGS AND CEREMONIES

CLUB AND BOARD/OFFICERS' MEETINGS

People who give time as volunteers tend to be the busiest people in your school and community. That is why it is critical how you hold a board, club or committee meeting.

- Make sure agenda is clear;
- See that people have any information they need at or before the meeting;
- Start on time, finish on time, and follow the agenda;
- Control the meeting – understand and use Robert's Rules of Order;
- Make sure speakers and committee presenters know how long they have and hold them to it;
- Always allow time for questions following a speaker or committee presentation.
- Do not waste time by not being prepared.

SAMPLE CLUB MEETING AGENDA

Date, Time and Location

Order of Agenda:

- Call to Order (President)
- Roll Call
- Introduction of Guests
- Remarks by the President
- Reading and approval of the Minutes
- Report of Secretary and/or Treasurer
- Committee Reports (Membership, Sponsorship, Fundraising, Publicity, Social)
- Unfinished Business

If your club invites a guest to speak at your club meeting you would want to add the following section to your agenda:

- Introduction of Guest Speaker
- Guest Speaker
- Question and Answer Period
- Appreciation to Guest Speaker

		Get information about a procedure	"Point of information."	NO	NO	NO	THE CHAIR
		Get a count taken to verify a voice vote	"I call for a division of the assembly." Or "Division!"	NO	NO	NO	MAJORITY (if someone objects)
		Reconsider a matter already disposed of	"I move that we reconsider (now or later) our action on..."	YES	NO	YES (if original motion was debatable)	MAJORITY

For easy reference, the principle kinds of parliamentary action are grouped according to the general purpose they are intended to accomplish. Each action is bracketed with the specific words used to initiate it and the basic rules that will affect its outcome. If you want to know which actions get prior consideration over other actions...and in any lively debate you may need to know that...refer to the column "order of precedence." There, each motion or point that can be ranked has a rank (number) assigned to it. The lower the number, the higher the motions' rank, that is, the fewer other motions it yields to. A motion to adjourn thus takes precedence over any other motion on the chart.

Amendment must be relevant to the motion. An amendment that would nullify a motion is out of order. An amendment may be amended only once. Generally, any action that interferes with members' rights requires a two-thirds vote. These motions have no fixed rank, but they may not be brought up while any other motion is pending. A person wishing to raise a point of privilege, order or urgent information may interrupt another person who has the floor; otherwise it's out of order to interrupt a speaker. A motion for a vote count must be made during or immediately after a voice vote, and an appeal motion must be made immediately after the chair's ruling is announced; both kinds of motion must be disposed of immediately. Neither has a general ruling except when the ruling being appealed has to do with the appealing member's conduct or behavior in the meeting.

INDUCTION CEREMONIES

NEW MEMBERS

The importance of formally inducting a new member into a Collegiate Club cannot be over-emphasized. The new member who receives a warm friendly welcome and is impressed with the serious obligation and privilege of being a Collegiate will be a better member. The formal induction should be held at a regular club meeting. The club president normally conducts the induction ceremony.

INDUCTION CEREMONY NO. 1

As president, it is my pleasure to welcome (first name) as a member in the (name) Collegiate Club. (First name), you are about to begin sharing with us the honor and privilege of providing service through community activities.

INDUCTION CEREMONY NO. 2

It is an honor for me today to present (First name) our newest Collegiate member. We are proud to have you join us and hope you will show pride in this Collegiate Club. Our sponsorships provide community support. We encourage you to be involved. Our fundraisers are not only important to the life of our club; they are fun. Welcome to our club! Welcome to Collegiates!

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

The sponsoring Sertoma Club president or Sponsor Club Liaison should be invited to install new Collegiate Club officers at a special meeting arranged for this purpose

INSTALLATION CEREMONY

The (name) Collegiate Club begins a new year. Because of your interest, enthusiasm, experience and demonstrated abilities of leadership, you have been elected to serve as the officers for this new year. The guidance of the club is now your responsibility. Its progress, sponsorship activities and welfare during the year will depend upon how well you perform your duties.

PRESIDENT:

(First name), you have been elected as the president of the (name) Collegiate Club. You are the leader of a great organization, and your club now looks to you for leadership. Don't do all of the club's work yourself. Your ability to select capable committee chairman and to delegate work to the various officers will be the key to your success as President and to the success of the club during your administration. It is your responsibility to organize, lead, suggest and inspire.

In working with your officers, their opinions and ideas should be respected always. Regular Board/officer meetings are essential and exchange of opinions, ideas and suggestions is a sign of a healthy organization. It is with pleasure that I install you as president of the (name) Collegiate Club.

VICE PRESIDENT(S):

(Name them by name), you have been selected to the next highest office and are the right hand(s) of your president. The president will assign you various duties in addition to those already assigned through your club Bylaws. In the absence of the president, (one of) you will serve in his or her place with like powers and duties.

TREASURER:

(First name), as treasurer, you are responsible for the finances of the club and all financial records. It is your duty to accurately account for all monies placed in your custody and to issue payments on behalf of the organization.

SECRETARY:

(First name), as secretary, you are responsible for the records of the organization. You must keep an accurate record of the membership of your club; report changes in membership to your Sponsor Club Liaison and Collegiate Club Advisor; provide the necessary information to the Sponsor Club Liaison and Collegiate Club Advisor to ensure that Annual Reports can be submitted on time; take care of all correspondence of the club and perform other duties as may be assigned to you. Your reports and correspondence are the primary source of information about your club.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS:

(First name), as sergeant-at-arms, you must preserve order at club meetings and care for the club's property. A good sergeant-at-arms is an asset to the club, not only from the point of preserving order but the many courtesy duties that are your responsibility.

New or prospective members must be greeted cordially and made to feel welcome. No matter how friendly other officers are or how club meetings go, an enthusiastic sergeant-at-arms can enhance them all.

PROTOCOL FOR USE OF THE U.S. FLAG

The flag of the United States of America should be at the center and at the highest point of the group when a number of flags of states or localities or pennants of societies are grouped and displayed from staffs.

When flags of states, cities, or localities or pennants of societies are flown on the same halyard with the flag of the United States, the latter should always be at the peak. When the flags are flown from adjacent staffs, the flag of the United States should be hoisted first and lowered last. No such flag or pennant may be placed above the flag of the United States or to the United States flag's right if facing the audience.

When flags of two or more nations are displayed, fly them from separate staffs of the same height. The flags should be approximately equal in size. International usage forbids the display of the flag of one nation above that of another nation in time of peace.

When used on a speaker's platform, the flag, if displayed flat, should be displayed above and behind the speaker. When displayed from a staff in a church or public auditorium, the flag of the United States of America should hold the position of superior prominence, in front of the audience and in the position of honor at the clergyman's or speaker's right as he or she faces the audience. Any other flag so displayed should be placed on the left of the clergyman or speaker or to the right of the audience.

SERTOMA SAFEARS!®

SAFEEars! promotes the important message that noise-induced hearing loss is preventable. With hearing loss becoming more common in the United States, awareness programs such as SAFEEars!, serve as an important catalyst to educate the public about this important health issue. The program strives to motivate young people and adults to take action against noise-induced hearing loss (NIHL) by understanding its problem and its solutions.

Before young people can understand hearing loss, they must understand how noise is a major cause of it. Providing concrete examples and hands-on activities helps them understand that noise-induced hearing loss is real. SAFEEars! Kids are Listening (for children in third through sixth grade) and Listen Up (for sixth, seventh and eighth graders) activities help young people develop an awareness of hearing and hearing loss. Many of the activities also provide opportunities for young people to influence the awareness and understanding of others regarding noise-induced hearing loss.

For more information on SAFEEars!, please contact Sertoma headquarters.

A SOUND INVESTMENT

In many ways, we have made the world accessible to all people through the Americans with Disabilities Act and other efforts. However, in some ways, we have failed to make that access complete. We have worked hard to remove the barriers that limit use of a public facility for those who cannot walk, but have done little for those who cannot hear. For the millions of Americans using hearing assistive devices, the ability to hear in public facilities is limited. Yet, all those sounds can be made clear by the simple act of installing an available, simple and cost-effective technology - the induction loop.

Looping is a simple technology that allows hearing-assistive devices to serve as wireless loudspeakers, delivering clear, sharp, customized sound right from inside the ears. It can be adapted to use in large public spaces, such as airports and auditoriums. It can also just as easily be installed in churches, drive-up business windows and even into a single room at home so the TV or stereo sound becomes a broadcast going directly through the hearing assistive device. The induction loop is to hearing aids what Wi-Fi is to laptops.

The goal is to make the sounds through public address and amplified systems in public facilities readily accessible to those that use hearing assistive devices. We can achieve this goal by promoting and assisting in installing looping technology of public buildings and facilities. This effort will not only provide access that should be available, but will promote the value and importance of hearing health services and technology.

There are three primary ways to get involved in the campaign. Based on the needs and opportunities in your community there could be more.

- Form a speaker's bureau and help get the word out.
- Adopt a looping project and see that a facility gets looped.
- Support an existing effort.

The A Sound Investment campaign is a way for any group or individual to play an important role in the community. The primary benefit is becoming a recognized leader on an important community issue. The end result, you will build new relationships; whether through working with a local library to loop a meeting room or through another individual who would also like to participate in the A Sound Investment campaign.

CELEBRATE SOUND®

CELEBRATE SOUND® is Sertoma's first national fund- and awareness-raising event created to help members, clubs and National Affiliates promote hearing health in our communities.

This premiere event is designed as a turnkey fundraising project for Sertoma Clubs and National Affiliates. The walk will help you raise funds, but equally important, help raise awareness of Sertoma, its affiliates, and our hearing health mission.

Sertoma and its affiliates are well respected for our hearing health mission. Hearing health agencies, audiology and speech pathology professions, deaf and hard-of-hearing students – these communities know of and benefit from the contributions Sertomans make in the form of grants and scholarships.

With CELEBRATE SOUND, we can spread the word beyond these circles. Together, we can raise public awareness of hearing health issues and increase funding for grants and scholarships.

Your turnkey tool set will include a step-by-step guide to organize your local walk, plus supplies and resources to implement and promote your event. Online event management will make your volunteers' work simple and easy. Sertoma provides the tools and supplies for the event, from t-shirts and posters to full administration of walkers and donations. The walk organizer provides for the local needs - permits, facilities, day-of-event activities, and recruitment of local sponsors and walkers. The walk organizer's expenses and supply costs will be paid from the revenues generated by the event. The remaining proceeds (net revenue) will be divided between Sertoma and the walk organizer. A partnership of shared investment, effort and success will build awareness and support for local and national programs and services.

Collegiate Clubs must participate/host a CELEBRATE SOUND event through a sponsoring club.

APPENDIX D - LIAISON AND ADVISORY RESOURCES

SPONSOR CLUB LIAISON

The Sponsor Club Liaison is the person who maintains close contact with the Collegiate Club to see that the sponsoring Sertoma Club's goals for the Collegiate Club are being met. The Sponsor Club Liaison is critical to the formation of a new Collegiate Club.

The Sponsor Club Liaison, as the first contact with the school (when building a new Collegiate Club), should determine the requirements of the school. This includes determining restrictions on meeting times, days and spaces, as well as determining exactly how the sponsoring club will handle funds.

RESPONSIBILITIES

A Sponsor Club Liaison:

- Is a member of the sponsoring Sertoma Club;
- Is accountable to the sponsoring Sertoma Club and its board of directors for activities and finances of the Collegiate Club;
- Works with the Collegiate Club Advisor to ensure funds are properly expended;
- Works with the Collegiate Club Advisor to ensure Bi-Annual Reports are properly submitted;
- Attends meetings, projects, sponsorships and socials; and
- Is familiar with all correspondence and reports between the club secretary and Sertoma headquarters.

After a Sponsor Club Liaison is selected, the Liaison with the Collegiate Club Advisor:

- Contacts the school or group about organizing a Collegiate Club;
- Holds a general meeting and makes a presentation to the students;
- Plans to have an organizational meeting a week later; and
- Contacts potential members, gives them information and invites them to the meeting.

At the organizational meeting, the Sponsor Club Liaison:

- Explains the purpose of the Collegiate Club programs and how members will benefit;
- Completes a Charter Member Roster and collects initial fees;
- Leads the club in amending and adopting a Constitution and Bylaws;
- Assists in electing Club Officers;
- Helps set a permanent meeting day and time;
- Helps determine club dues; and
- Leads a discussion of sponsorship projects and fundraisers.

COLLEGIATE CLUB ADVISOR

The Collegiate Club Advisor is the person volunteering his or her time to support the Collegiate program. This is the person who maintains close contact with the Collegiate Club to ensure that members are gaining from their experiences. The Collegiate Club Advisor should counsel and assist with all activities and financial issues whenever Collegiate Club members have questions, but shall allow members direct all club activities.

Some schools require a school-appointed Collegiate Club Advisor, who sometimes receives “extra duty” pay from the school for serving as a sponsor of a school-approved organization.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

A Collegiate Club Advisor:

- Is the ultimate authority of funds, especially if the Collegiate Club is school-based;
- Attends all meetings, projects, sponsorships, and socials;
- May become a member of the sponsoring Sertoma Club;
- Is familiar with all correspondence and reports between the club secretary and Sertoma headquarters;
- Works with the Sponsor Club Liaison to ensure Annual Reports are properly submitted;
- Advises and guides members on club functions, the community and other matters of interest;
- Promotes membership retention; and
- Promotes good citizenship through helping the youth serve the community.

TEN STEPS TO BUILDING A COLLEGIATE CLUB

STEP 1: Get a commitment from your club to sponsor the Collegiate Club and nurture it for years to come. Set a budget; you’ll need to figure costs for an organizational meeting, the cost to charter and a charter banquet.

STEP 2: Work with school or community officials to get any necessary authorization to start a Collegiate Club.

STEP 3: Appoint a member of your Sertoma Club to serve as Liaison to the new Collegiate Club. This Sertoman will coordinate the club-building efforts and will work closely with the Collegiate Club Advisor, once the club has been built. The Sponsor Club Liaison to the Collegiate Club will:

- Keep in close contact with the Collegiates;
- Keep your Sertoma Club advised as to the activities of the Collegiates; and
- Attend at least one meeting each month.

STEP 4: Appoint a school or community official to serve as Collegiate Club Advisor to the new Collegiate Club. This may be an institutional requirement for a school-based club. This Advisor can select key youth leaders who can help recruit members and will likely serve as charter club officers. The Collegiate Club Advisor will:

- Be an Advisor, not a boss;
- Attend all meetings;
- Assure reports are submitted on time to Sertoma headquarters; and
- Maintain a current Collegiate roster.

STEP 5: Determine the membership base for your Collegiate Club. Should it be school-based or community-based? Also, determine your Sertoma Club's goals and purposes for sponsoring the Collegiate Club.

STEP 6: Hold a meeting of the identified collegiate leaders to brainstorm with the Sponsor Club Liaison and Collegiate Club Advisor (s) about subjects such as:

- Purposes of the club
- Names of potential members
- Dues or fees their peers may pay to participate in the club
- School or community needs the club could address (it helps to discuss specific project ideas at the first information meetings)
- Club Constitution and Bylaws suggestions
- Community needs
- Recruiting ideas

STEP 7: Begin recruiting young people to join the new club. Your publicity efforts might include:

- Submitting press releases to the school newspaper and local media announcing the new club;
- Distributing Collegiate brochures in schools, malls and other hot spots; or
- Making very short visits to classrooms, churches or student council meetings to let students know about the upcoming informational meeting where they can learn about this exciting new service club.

STEP 8: Hold a general meeting to explain the Collegiate program. Remember that the program is designed to be flexible and to provide an outlet for young people to serve the community through activities they choose with the nurturing support of the Club. At this meeting, encourage the youth to bring interested friends to the official Collegiate Club Organization Meeting to be held about a week after this general meeting.

STEP 9: Hold the organizational meeting to address the following business:

- Reiterate the purposes of the club;
- Complete FORM 1-A: Membership Report Roster and collect initial fees;
- Adopt Club Constitution and Bylaws;
- Elect charter club officers;
- Set permanent meeting day and time;
- Set club dues amount;
- Discuss sponsorships and fundraising ideas; and
- Assign members to necessary club committees.

STEP 10: Send your club's check for the new Collegiate Club's charter sponsorship fee ($300.00) to Sertoma headquarters, with the following:

- FORM 1-A: Membership Report Roster
- Constitution and Bylaws and FORM 1-F: Official Record
- FORM 1-D: Collegiate Organization Meeting Report.

Upon receipt of the above, Sertoma headquarters will process the application. A club banner may also be ordered and can be shipped from our supplier 6-8 weeks later. Most CS1 clubs hold a charter event, either a banquet or meeting with parents and Sertomans invited, to celebrate the new club.

Once the club has been chartered, the annual sponsorship fee for all Collegiate Clubs is $200, billed to the sponsoring Sertoma Club's account each July.

The Charter Banquet of a new Collegiate Club is very significant! It is the first group activity of the new club and launches a program of service in the community.

A well-planned, efficiently conducted Charter Banquet can result in further public recognition for the new club and its affiliation with Sertoma. It will also impress upon the members the objectives of the Collegiate program. It gives the new club an opportunity to conduct its first sponsorship activity and to tell the community the Collegiate story.

The highlight of the Charter Banquet is the formal address following the installation of officers and the charter presentation.

Charter members refer to individuals who join before the charter date. Attendance at the charter banquet will help give members and guests a better understanding of the local Collegiate Club and its objectives.

A successful charter presentation will require that the sponsoring Sertoma Club work closely with the charter banquet committee to help with the numerous preparations.

CHARTER BANQUET PLANNING

Usually, a committee of two to five new club members and Sponsor club members can plan a successful charter banquet. The Committee from the new club should have a Chair responsible for the overall event. Committee members are responsible for arrangements, reservations, publicity and the program.

New club members can serve as Chair of the subcommittees, reporting to the chair. Often a member of the Sponsor club will assign and assist each subcommittee.

THE GENERAL CHAIR: The general chair must see the banquet occurs at a time and place that will ensure good attendance.

Careful consideration and planning is important so the banquet doesn't become too expensive for the club.

The General Chair must stay in contact with the members of the Charter Banquet committee to ensure the banquet's success.

ARRANGEMENTS: The arrangements subcommittee will recommend a site for the Charter Banquet.

Decorations are also part of this subcommittee's responsibilities and may include sponsoring Sertoma Club banners, a gong and gavel, flower arrangements and the flag of the nation. A lighted speaker's stand should be a part of the head table arrangement.

When establishing a ticket price, keep in mind that a number of guests' meals will be complimentary. New clubs usually invite local current Sertoma officers (if any) and/or division leaders to be their guests.

RESERVATIONS: The reservations subcommittee is responsible for determining, in advance, how many people will attend the banquet. This subcommittee will also be responsible for the reception of new club members and guests in attendance.

Usually, the Sponsor club sends invitations to other Collegiate Clubs in the area. A deadline for reservations with payment should be established, and is set for two to four days before the Charter Banquet.

The reservations' subcommittee will determine how many new club members and other guests will attend.

Everyone should pay in advance for his or her tickets. This total, plus the confirmed reservations, will give the Committee the exact number of meals to order. Guarantee 5% fewer meals than you expect to avoid paying for no shows.

PROGRAM: The program subcommittee is responsible for selecting a Master of Ceremonies, arranging the formal program, preparing the souvenir program and making head table seating arrangements.

The Master of Ceremonies should be acquainted with the members of the new club and of the Sponsor club. He or she should make introductions of dignitaries, members and guests and should know necessary background information about them. The new club President or Sponsor club President often serves as Master of Ceremonies.

The program subcommittee should prepare a printed souvenir program for the Charter Banquet. The front should include the Collegiate emblem along with the date and place for the event. The program should also list the names of Charter members, Collegiate officers, the banquet program and an expression of gratitude from the new club.

THE MEETING PROGRAM AGENDA

Most charter banquets follow the meeting program agenda as outlined.

If ordered by the sponsoring Sertoma Club, Charter members receive a lapel pin at the Charter Banquet. The Master of Ceremonies may decide to introduce each charter member individually if time allows.

A member of the new club should be responsible for welcoming visiting Sertomans and other guests.

Each new club receives a charter from Sertoma headquarters, which is often officially presented by the sponsor club president, a Sertoma officer or regional leader. After the charter is presented, the Charter President should make a brief acceptance speech. This is also an opportunity for the president to express appreciation to the sponsor club, national officer, division leader, etc., and highlight the goals of the new club.

A highlight of the Charter Banquet is the formal installation of the officers, which a Sertoma leader handles. This individual immediately follows the installation with an address.

FINANCING THE CHARTER BANQUET

To ensure the Charter Banquet isn't a financial burden to the new club, the committee should budget accurately. Expenses must be considered when setting a price for banquet tickets. The committee will add tax, gratuities and cost of the souvenir program, ticket printing, decorations, any complimentary meals and incidental expenses to the basic meal charge.

The number of paying people expected to attend should divide the total anticipated cost for meals and other expenses, excluding any complimentary tickets. To cover the entire cost of the banquet and make it possible for the new club to have a small profit, use conservative estimates for anticipated attendance. The committee and the caterer (if used) should agree, in advance, on the exact menu and its cost, the amount of tax and gratuity, and other services.

PREPARE FOR THE UNEXPECTED

The committee should anticipate the unexpected and prevent it from happening. Items such as the public address system, table decorations, place cards for the head table, table arrangements, (to name a few), should be checked in advance. Prepare a checklist and use it to eliminate unexpected problems.

CHECK LIST

- Make sure the correct number of reservations has been made if serving a meal. Prepayment for all reservations is a MUST.
- Be ready to take care of the unexpected guest, possibly of head table stature. Fill in the last two seats at the head table just before the banquet begins.
- Make sure the public address system is working.
- Check table decorations and gifts for presentation.
- Arrange to have someone photograph the banquet. This should not interfere with the banquet program. Some photos can be staged before or after the meeting.
- Check in advance to make sure your banquet facilities will be free from outside interferences and noise from adjacent rooms.
- Make sure holders of complimentary tickets receive them in advance to prevent unnecessary embarrassments.
