

Convention Policies

All attendees, speakers, sponsors, volunteers and guests/persons at Sertoma's National Convention are required to abide by the Convention Policies. By attending Convention, you agree to follow these policies at Convention and at Convention-related social events.

Name Badge

All attendees, exhibitors, volunteers and visitors are always required to wear a current Convention name badge provided by Sertoma, Inc., for this specific event to gain access to and/or attend Convention events, receptions, education sessions, meetings, networking opportunities and visiting with attendees. This policy will be enforced.

Code of Conduct

Sertoma, Inc., seeks to provide an environment in which all participants may learn, network and enjoy the company of peers. Some behaviors are, therefore, specifically prohibited.

- Harassment or intimidation based on race, religion, language, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, appearance or any other group status.
- Sexual harassment or intimidation, including unwelcome sexual attention, stalking (physical or virtual), or unsolicited physical contact.
- Yelling at or threatening any participant, including speakers or staff (verbally or physically). Sertoma, Inc., does not tolerate harassment in any form, including, but not limited to, talks, parties, Twitter, Facebook and other online media. Convention participants violating these rules may be sanctioned or expelled from the event without a refund, at the discretion of the organizers.

Videotaping and Photography

By registering and attending Convention, you consent to being videotaped or photographed and understand that these are subject for use in Sertoma, Inc., materials. This includes the recording of children under the age of 18. Note: Unauthorized recording of sessions is not allowed without express permission of event organizers.
